

Guidelines for Distinguished Professor Review of the College of Engineering at National Chiao Tung University

Amended and Approved in the 7th College Teaching Review Committee on April 16, 2000
Amended and approved in the 1st College Teaching Review Committee for Article 6 on September 20, 2012

Article 1

To elevate the teaching and research level, the College of Engineering (hereinafter referred to as “the College”) stipulates the “Guidelines for Distinguished Professor Review of the College of Engineering at the National Chiao Tung University” (hereinafter referred to as “the Guidelines”) in accordance with the Regulations on the implementation of Distinguished Professor of National Chiao Tung University.

Article 2

Candidates for distinguished professor shall be full-time faculty members, have outstanding academic performances during the past five years, and meet one of the following criteria:

1. Awarded the Distinguished Research Award by the National Science Council for at least once.
2. Awarded the Outstanding Teaching Award of NCTU twice or above.
3. Awarded other academic honors or achievements of the same level.

The qualification for candidacy shall be verified by the Department Teaching Review Committee and be submitted to the College Distinguished Professor Review Committee (hereinafter referred to as “the Committee”) for further evaluation.

Article 3

The College Chair shall be the ex officio member and convener of the Committee. He/she shall invite five to seven faculty members of the College and/or Professors from external institutes who have distinguished academic accomplishment to be members of the Committee. Moreover, external members must account for more than one-third of the Committee. It is responsible for the review of the Distinguished Professor qualification and the number of candidates nominated. Upon approval, the list of candidates shall be submitted to the College and University Teaching Review Committee and then to the President for recruitment. The Committee shall start the meeting upon the presence of two-thirds of its members. And the conclusion shall only be made under the agreement of at least two-thirds of its members in attendance.

Article 4

The tenure of the Distinguished Professor is three year. NCTU will confer the awarded Professor a letter of Distinguished Professor appointment. The Distinguished Professor may file an application for recruitment renewal one semester before the tenure terminates. And the Committee will review the qualification for recruitment renewal. The procedures for renewal are the same as those for new recruitment, only that the second condition of candidate qualification in Article 2 shall not be reused.

Article 5

The number of Distinguished Professors and Chair Professors shall not surpass 20 percent of the full-time faculty members of the College. Joint recruitment shall be preceded by the main recruiting unit. Once the Distinguished Professor is recruited as the NCTU Chair Professor or when he/she is no longer a full-time NCTU faculty member, the Distinguished Professorship will terminate automatically.

Article 6

Beside the original remuneration, the College shall offer proposition for Distinguished Professor to the Office of Research and Development. Upon approval, it shall be approved and signed by the President. The proposition shall indicate related subsidies offered by NCTU during his/her tenure. The subsidies shall be offered in accordance with the “Regulations for the National Chiao Tung University Subsidies for Recruitment and Retaining of Outstanding Talents.”

Article 7

The Distinguished Professor shall be dedicated to the amelioration of research and teaching quality of the College. His/her academic responsibility shall be discussed with the President or the unit chair conferred by the President, and it shall be clarified in the letter of appointment by the Personnel Office.

Article 8

The cases shall be attended to in accordance with related regulations if not covered in the Regulations herein.

Article 9

The Guidelines are passed by the College Teaching Review Committee before being approved by the University Teaching Review Committee, and the same procedures apply to any amendment thereto.
